Payment

14. Unless otherwise expressly provided, all prices are exclusive of any taxes and other charges imposed by the authorities and administrative charges. All functionalities and features of the Service are paid functionalities (hereafter collectively referred to as "Functionalities"). You agree to pay the fees associated with the use of Functionalities within thirty (30) days of the date of our invoice. We may suspend or cancel your access to the Service if we do not receive such fees on time. Suspension or cancellation of your access to the Service for nonpayment could result in a loss of access to and use of your Account, as well as loss of your User Content stored on the Service.

15. To pay the fees for Functionalities delivered through the Service, you will be asked to provide a payment method at the time you sign up for such Functionalities. You can access and change your billing account information and payment method by contacting Channable. You agree to keep this information current at all times.

16. By providing Channable with a payment method, you

- (i) represent that you are authorized to use the payment method that you provided and that any payment information you provide is true and accurate;
- (ii) authorize Channable to charge you for the Functionalities using your payment method; and
- (iii) authorize Channable to charge you for the Functionalities. We will bill you in advance of each billing period and on a recurring basis. Typically, a billing period entails a month.

17. Subscription to our Service is automatically renewed each billing period. The charge for each billing period is based on the Functionalities of the Service you use in combination with other factors including, but not limited to, the number of imported items, number of projects and number of channels. Calculation of the fees is done automatically and can vary each billing period. More information on pricing can be found on our website (channable.com/pricing). To terminate your subscription, you must cancel the Functionalities before the billing date to avoid being billed for the renewal. If you cancel your recurring payment option, your account will remain active until its next renewal date. In case of such cancellation, you will not be given any refund. If you delete your Account before the end of the period for which you paid, your cancellation will take effect immediately. In case of deletion of your account, you will not be given any refund.

18. We will provide you with an invoice via email. You are also able to view these invoices in the Account settings in the Service. If we make an error on your bill, you must tell us within thirty (30) days after the error first appears on your bill. We will then promptly investigate the charge. If you do not tell us within that time, you release us from all liability and claims of loss resulting from the error and we will not be required to correct the error or provide a refund. If Channable has identified a billing error, we will correct that error within thirty (30) days.

19. When you use Functionalities from us, you agree that we may begin to provide Functionalities immediately. You will not be entitled to a cancellation or “cooling off” period, except if the law requires a cooling off period. Payment for Functionalities (whether these are transactions or subscriptions) is non-refundable.

20. Channable may change the price of the Functionalities at any time and will notify you by email at least thirty (30) days before the price change. This does not include the change in subscription because of the factors as stated in paragraph 17. If you do not agree to the price change, you must cancel and stop using the Functionalities before the price change takes effect. If there is a fixed term and price for your Functionalities offer, that price will remain in force for the term.

21. You must pay for all reasonable costs we incur to collect any past due amounts. These include reasonable attorneys’ fees and other legal fees and costs, in event of default. You are not entitled to set off or suspend any payments due.

22. If Channable owes you a payment, then you agree to timely and accurately provide us with any information we need to get that payment to you. You are responsible for any taxes and charges you may incur as a result of this payment to you. You must also comply with any other conditions we place on your right to any payment. If you receive a payment in error, we may reverse or require return of the payment. You agree to cooperate with us in our efforts to do this. We may also reduce the payment to you without notice to adjust for any previous overpayment.
